KUMPF SETS NEW BOWLING RECORD

ROCHESTER, N. Y. April 22.—A world's tournament record for individual bowling was established this afternoon on the last day of the National Bowling association's seventh tournament, when George Kumpf of Buffalo rolled 712 pins. His scores were 224, 234 and 254. His score beats both the National Bowling association and the American Bowling association and the American Bowling congress mark of 705. Rolling in the American Bowling congress mark of 705. Rolling in the American Bowling congress tournament in Detroit in 1916, Tom Halev of Detroit toppied 705 pins, and in the National Bowling association tournament in Baltimore the same year Tony Prior of Brooklyn registered 765.

The tournament came to an end tonight with an open sweepstakes. The The tournament came to an end to-night with an open sweepstakes. The official standing will be issued tomorrow night. Kumpf did not use a loaded ball in establishing his record.

ALL HALLOWS TEAM Coast League DEFEATS BOUNTIFUL

The All Hallows baseball nine defeated The All Hallows baseball nine defeated Bountiful yesterday by the score of 14 to 0 in a five-inning game. The visitors had no opportunity to score, while the college boys ran the bases apparently at will. Schmidt, the college twirler, struck out nine men and allowed no hits. Davis pitched good ball, but was given poor support. The fielding and batting of McGill and Boyer were features. It is probable that the All Hallows team will meet the University "preps" Thursday. The college boys are fast rounding into excellent shape and will undoubtedly have a successful season. Batteries-Killilay and Rohrer; Hitt Batteries—Schultz and Cheek, Hager-

RED AND BLACK NINE DEFEAT JORDAN TEAM

The Red and Black nine defeated the Jordan nine by a score of 12 to 9 yesterday afternoon on the west side campus. This is the second defeat that the Jordan boys have experienced in the race for the state championship. The Saints defeated them on their own grounds last Thursday. The Sait Lake high boys were also beaten by the All Hallows nine. However, they are not out of the running yet. The Jordan sluggers hit out three home runs, but outside of these sensational features the batting was about even. The outfield work on both sides was good.
